

Minister Sophia Aggelonitis Visits the Gilbrea Centre for Studies in Aging

Minister Sophia Aggelonitis, Minister Responsible for Seniors and Minister of Revenue, visited the Gilbrea Centre for Studies in Aging on December 17, 2010. Dr. Charlotte Yates, Dean of Social Sciences, and Brian Kelly, Senior Advisor, Government Relations, Public Relations/Office of the President, welcomed her to the McMaster University and Dr. Margaret Denton, Director of the Gilbrea Centre, and Gail Elliot, Assistant Director, provided Minister Aggelonitis with an overview of the Mission, Goals, Objectives and many and diverse initiatives of the Gilbrea Centre. An emphasis was placed on the innovative interventions for dementia, such as the Montessori Methods for Dementia and the Spaced Retrieval technique. It was a pleasure meeting Minister Aggelonitis and we were delighted to be able to share information about our many initiatives with her.

Hon. Sophia Aggelonitis, MPP Hamilton Mountain (centre) visits the Gilbrea Centre for Studies in Aging. Pictured with Sophia is Dr. Margaret Denton, Director, Gilbrea Centre for Studies in Aging (left) and Gail Elliot, Assistant Director, Gilbrea Center for Studies in Aging (right).

